The Association of Independent Mortgage Experts, a non-profit, national trade membership association created exclusively for independent mortgage brokers officially announces the third annual AIME Fuse National Conference on Friday, Sept. 25th will be hosted virtually.

This year's virtual event will provide a premium interactive experience to members of the broker community with access to exclusive content only available through the virtual event platform. Ticket holders will have access to a full day of forward-thinking keynote speakers and panel sessions featuring industry experts who will share their expertise via live stream. AIME Fuse Virtual allows for networking opportunities with top-name exhibitors and the ability to connect with other virtual attendees in one-on-one real-time chats through a mobile app, laptop or other connected devices.

"Not being able to see our members face-to-face at AIME Fuse 2020 is not our ideal experience, but our ultimate priority is everyone's health," said Marc Summers, President of AIME. "Attendees should expect television-quality production throughout the entirety of the day's presentations. Our goal is to make this year the most valuable speaker line-up to date and have every attendee ready to take on what the next year has in store for the wholesale channel."

Be a part of the continued growth of the wholesale channel as we help each other navigate through these unprecedented times. AIME Fuse Virtual is designed to keep broker success front and center with innovative speakers and industry professionals who provide AIME members with the tools, resources and support necessary to properly advise borrowers and build efficient businesses.
